Please read the following terms and conditions carefully before submitting payment for the above workshops. Submitting your application form and paying the part or full fee indicates that you accept these terms and conditions.

All bookings and payments are subject to the following terms and conditions:

- Your booking is not confirmed until your application form has been approved and payment is received. Your place is secured once both application and payment are received. If you have not received an email from us within 7 days of payment, please email Ayla at: aylag@live.com.au
- Early Bird payment needs to be received by the 15 January 2024.
Full Fees and First Instalments need to be received by the 1 March 2024.
- Cancellations and refunds will incur a 10% admin fee and will be possible up until the 10 March 2024. Cancellations after the 10 March 2024 will not be reimbursed unless the position can be filled. In this case you will still incur a 10% admin fee. Please understand that we halt promotion once the workshop is full and your payment indicates your full commitment to the workshop.
- It is the participant's responsibility to ensure that they book the necessary travel arrangements to arrive at the venue on time. In no event will Hakomi or Embodiment Journeys be liable for any third party arrangements or associated costs including, but not limited to, travel bookings.
- On booking this event you accept full liability for any risk you may take physically and emotionally by participating in the workshop. The organisers accept no responsibility in this respect.
